

Are assured of big returns for time spent in the perusal of our advertising columns. Only the advertisements of reputable firms offering dependable merchandise are accepted.

Of our Job Printing Department always one. Large or small orders are assured the same careful attention at prices compatible with the quality of the product. We solicit your valued orders.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

Mrs. Joe Tourdot was a Leontia for Monday.
Miss Leona Bell of Salem is here visiting relatives.
Miss Carrie Woods visited friends in Wellsville last Saturday.
Cost Herbert of Greenford was in the village Monday morning.
Mrs. Frank Deming of Salem spent Sunday with friends here.
David Dalley visited his son Alex in Youngstown over Sunday.
John Postage of Middlefield, Pa., spent Sunday with his mother.
Lem Moss of Deerfield visited Chas. Vignone and wife last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Paisley spent Sunday with Jack Paisley and family.
Mrs. Wm. Lindsey of Leontia spent last Thursday with Mrs. Fred Weikart.

Misses Annie and Birdie Brady were Youngstown shoppers last Friday.
Jack Baghurst of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kindig of Circleville, visited O. Bossert and family Sunday.

Marshall Gillary of Youngstown visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lixwell last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNeal and little daughter were Salem visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Weikart and children of Leontia visited Mrs. J. C. Weikart Wednesday.

King's Parlor for Spring and Summer Hats—from 48c to 98c and to $1.00.—Adv. 12

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert in Salem.

Walter Fulkerson of New Castle called at the home of Charles DeJane Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple and little daughter Mary were Youngstown visitors last Thursday.

Miss Hummel and Dan Moss of Sebring spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vignone.

Mrs. Squire Johnson went to Sebring Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dan Stevens.

Bert Weikart and family of Leontia spent Sunday with his parents, C. Weikart and wife.

Mrs. Louise Vignone was awarded a prize at the Princess theater in Youngstown on March 24.

Miss Millie Mathey of Youngstown visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Mackay, over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Middleton and Mrs. Floyd Coleman and children of Leontia visited Mrs. Mary Senior Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Fynes of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fynes.

Mrs. Olie Warner and Mrs. Ethel Gilson and daughter of Salem visited Harry McNeal and wife Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed. Herman and little daughter Lillian visited her mother, Mrs. Tomnach, in Canfield last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Paisley of Youngstown visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple, over Sunday.

Mrs. Charly Roller and son Eugene of Columbiana and son Roy of Cleveland visited Wm. Boston and family, Thursday.

Mrs. Feston Boston and daughter Gladys left Saturday for Akron where they will make their home for a short time.

Mrs. Claire Waggle and little son and Mrs. Carl Weikart and son Gilbert visited John Gilbert and wife Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sommerville returned home from Youngstown Monday evening after a few days' visit with relatives.

The dancing class conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Babb of Salem will hold a reception in the town hall Thursday evening.

Mrs. Charles DeJane returned home from Cleveland Saturday evening after a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Graham.

Mrs. C. W. Zimmerman and son Ralph and Mrs. S. R. Shives and daughter Gladys of Salem visited Mrs. George Watson.

Mrs. Ed. Longbottom spent Monday with Mrs. Wm. Senior in Sebring. Mrs. Senior has been very ill but is now getting along nicely.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Lambert Carrier Tuesday evening. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Culler.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weikart and little son and Miss Mabel Smith of Leontia spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thorp.

Easter Opening April 6, 7 and 8th. 100 ladies, misses and children's trimmed hats 75c to $3.50; also 300 samples of summer dress goods cheap at Brain's Millinery store.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lentz and daughters Edith and Elsie of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tetlow and children of Leontia spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Carrier.

Carl Bossert, who has been assisting in the office of the county road superintendent at the court house, went to Wooster where he has accepted a position in the office of the Wayne county highway department.

Council met in regular session Tuesday night with all members present and Mayor E. L. Girard presiding. Clerk Albert Culler reported balances in the treasury as follows: services, $181.41; health, $12.50; contingent, $88.97; total, $362.88. Collected from last rent, fine taxes, interest $243.77. The street committee reported the crossing at J. E. Lewis' and Stouffer's in bad condition. J. E. Lewis asked that a street light be placed at Stouffer's and the road committee will look after same. Bond of Charles DeJane, Jr., was read and approved by the mayor. The pay ordinance aggregating $158.95 was read and passed with suspension of the rules.

Mrs. Herbert Smedley was a Salem caller Wednesday.
John Wells is visiting his brother Joe in Pricedale, Pa.

Miss Lydia King was a Youngstown visitor Monday.
The K. of P. automobile will be presented to some one Saturday, April 23.

The graduating class of the public school will present a drama in the auditorium next week Friday and Saturday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kindig left Wednesday for their home in Circleville, Mont. Wednesday after three months' stay with his mother, Mrs. Mary Kindig.

Quarterly Conference will be held in the M. E. Church Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Rev. Winters, presiding elder, will preach and conduct communion service.

George W. Allen filed a bill of exceptions in the famous Allen and Roth case in the court of appeals Wednesday morning. The case has been tried twice in the court of common pleas and is now in the higher court for the second time. Costs of the case now amount to $450.

Attention Everybody—Charles Kaiser, the artist, is located at C. E. Holt's store, and is painting fine oil finished pictures at reasonable prices. Please remember a part of the profits on each and every picture is donated to Welcoming Lodge, No. 247, K. of P., so that every purchase you make is a boost for the K. of P. home. Come one, come all, especially Knights and Pythian Sisters, and lend a helping hand. Think you one and all for your past favors and soliciting the same support on this occasion, we are sincerely yours, K. of P. Committee—adv.

Thousands of good horses are being bought in Carroll county for the European war. Every Tuesday is "horse sales day" in Carrollton.

The last number of The Mahoning Dispatch was Vol. 39, No. 52, and this week begins its 40th year. As "charity covers a multitude of sins" so does the period named cover great men, interesting history, important inventions and queer politics. It began with U. S. Grant, a misfit in affairs of state, and ended with Woodrow Wilson, a great man and a great president.

Uncle Sammie Good and wife, Harry Showalter, his daughter Esther and Miss Malissa Weaver spent Sunday at Henry Lehman's.

A. B. Knopp, E. J. Longenecker and Jonas Horst, school board members of special district No. 1, Beaver township, met with the county school officials Wednesday Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer and daughter Pauline spent Saturday and Sunday in Youngstown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McNelly.

The Boy Scouts and their scoutmaster, C. C. Case, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews Saturday night. The evening was pleasantly spent in games. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Frank Nara of Minerva spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson.

Mrs. James Brown was pleasantly surprised by granger friends Wednesday evening, March 29, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was spent in games and a taffy pull.

Miss Hulda Gordon and Mary Loughlin have returned to Sebring after spending a week with their parents here.

Louis Gosser of Berlin is in Ellsworth Monday.

Miss Beulah Steenrod entertained six friends on the evening of her birthday March 31. Guests present were Misses Isabel Hammond, Pauline Schaefer, Prora Sisk, Elvareta Penstermaker, Elsie and Kathryn Barnett, Mabel Young, Marie Wilson and Marian Brown. There were many games and excellent music after which a supper was served by the hostess.

J. C. Gordon spent Saturday in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gray of Salem spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gordon.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Munda, which is Latin, and means that "the tall goes with the hide."
Michael Higgins was fortunate in securing so trustworthy a bartender as Moses Grindle.

Carpet beaters and vacuum sweepers are in the market and find ready sale.

I was sorry to hear of the death of my Teutonic friend, William Kirkoff, but was glad to know that he was kindly cared for at the home of Mrs. Viola Bauer until he was taken to the hospital.

Somebody in Washingtonville ought to get the auto to be given away by Welcoming Lodge, K. of P.

Geo. Winrow will likely be the first gardener in Blingville to have onions, garlic and other early vegetables on the market.

We opine that Ira Schurenberger favors "preparedness" along the line of good roads, and also the patrons along the rural route. Elect Geo. Cox to a second term and there will be a boom along that line.

Laurie Russell, Floyd Brain, Leslie Tinglee, A. L. Taylor, Dickie DeJane and the other juvenile sports about Washingtonville should not forget that April 15 will be Kite day.

Major David Skeels of the 80th O. V. L. aged 96, and Mrs. Richard Henderson, 92, are two of Carrollton's oldest inhabitants.

Thousands of good horses are being bought in Carroll county for the European war. Every Tuesday is "horse sales day" in Carrollton.

The last number of The Mahoning Dispatch was Vol. 39, No. 52, and this week begins its 40th year. As "charity covers a multitude of sins" so does the period named cover great men, interesting history, important inventions and queer politics. It began with U. S. Grant, a misfit in affairs of state, and ended with Woodrow Wilson, a great man and a great president.

Uncle Sammie Good and wife, Harry Showalter, his daughter Esther and Miss Malissa Weaver spent Sunday at Henry Lehman's.

A. B. Knopp, E. J. Longenecker and Jonas Horst, school board members of special district No. 1, Beaver township, met with the county school officials Wednesday Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer and daughter Pauline spent Saturday and Sunday in Youngstown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McNelly.

The Boy Scouts and their scoutmaster, C. C. Case, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathews Saturday night. The evening was pleasantly spent in games. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Frank Nara of Minerva spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson.

Mrs. James Brown was pleasantly surprised by granger friends Wednesday evening, March 29, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was spent in games and a taffy pull.

Miss Hulda Gordon and Mary Loughlin have returned to Sebring after spending a week with their parents here.

Louis Gosser of Berlin is in Ellsworth Monday.

Miss Beulah Steenrod entertained six friends on the evening of her birthday March 31. Guests present were Misses Isabel Hammond, Pauline Schaefer, Prora Sisk, Elvareta Penstermaker, Elsie and Kathryn Barnett, Mabel Young, Marie Wilson and Marian Brown. There were many games and excellent music after which a supper was served by the hostess.

J. C. Gordon spent Saturday in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gray of Salem spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gordon.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

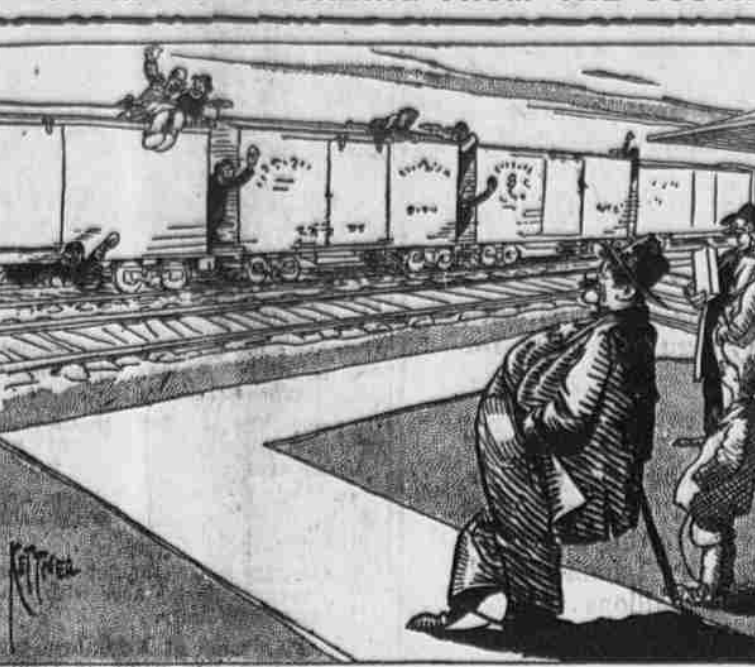

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

A company of friends gathered at the home of George Anderson Friday night to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent. A delicious lunch was served.

Miss Ina Spaulding has returned to Wooster after spending a week with her parents.

TOURISTS RETURNING FROM THE SOUTH

(Copyright.)

ISLAND

April 5—Mrs. Annie Wilson, who spent several weeks here, left Saturday for her home in Forest.

A. Less and I. A. Wisler last week moved a large drilling machine from Sebring to Salem for an oil and gas prospecting company.

Aldine Metzler of Youngstown visited Martin Kline and family over Sunday.

A. B. Knopp, E. J. Longenecker and Jonas Horst, school board members of special district No. 1, Beaver township, met with the county school officials Wednesday Saturday.

Uncle Sammie Good and wife, Harry Showalter, his daughter Esther and Miss Malissa Weaver spent Sunday at Henry Lehman's.

A. B. Knopp bought Martin Kline's farm of 8 acres Saturday and Mr. Kline purchased D. R. Lehman's property on the Salem road in Columbus the same day and takes possession in a few weeks.

Mrs. D. R. Lehman and daughter Mollie spent Sunday with Miss Theda Thomas in Salem. Miss Thomas recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Salem hospital and is recovering nicely.

Harvey Good was in Salem Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brucely called on Eli Slagel and family Sunday.

Harvey Good had the misfortune to have one of his best Holstein cows die Saturday.

Misses Edith and Anna Wenger spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Mattie Ziegler, in North Lima.

Albert Teacher of Alliance concluded a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Margaret Brudely and Miss Bertha Teacher, and returned home Sunday evening.

S. G. McClun was in Youngstown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wenger were Sunday visitors at Wm. Ziegler's in North Lima.

Gill Rowe and Floyd Wilt mingled with friends in Sebring Sunday.

Miss Doris Knopp spent Monday in Youngstown.

Mrs. Myrtle Leshler called on Mrs. Laura Klingensmith, Sunday.

D. R. Lehman and E. T. Roller are doing jury duty in Youngstown.

Jonas Knopp and daughters Lizzie and Mary visited A. Christoph and sisters, Sunday.

Harry Sell of Franklin county, Pa., is spending some time here with friends.

H. A. Schaeffer had business in Sebring Tuesday.

A shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNeal Wednesday evening.

Mr. McNeal has moved from Columbus into the Kyle house east of the village.

John Governor is convalescing from a severe case of measles.

T. A. Roberts of Youngstown will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. D. V. Eckenrode, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is not much improved.

Clyde Cole is selling a number of Ford's today.

Rev. Hoover of Alliance was in the village Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Roy Thompson and son Leroy spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Withers and daughter Mildred of Ellsworth Station spent Sunday at Wm. Withers'.

Inez Detcheon of Milton spent Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Withers.

Mrs. R. E. Flick was in Youngstown Wednesday.

April 5—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stacey of Salem were guests at the home of W. W. Burns over Sunday.

Frank Oesch of Damascus spent a few days at the home of his sisters, Mrs. Geo. Orr, and Mrs. John Lipplatt.

C. W. Dunn and family have taken up their residence in Salem.

Wm. Needham and family of Canton are guests of friends in the village.

NORTH JACKSON

April 5—Mrs. Anna Keck of Niles spent Friday at the home of Mr. George Leonard who moved his family from Ellsworth to the Scott house.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and two daughters of Girard called here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Howard were in Ellsworth Thursday.

Mrs. R. A. McMoran, Mrs. Frear Eckenrode, Mrs. E. E. Flick and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klingeman attended the funeral of Lulu Wanamaker in Alliance Thursday.

Kanard Eckenrode moved to Berlin Thursday.

A shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNeal Wednesday evening.

Mr. McNeal has moved from Columbus into the Kyle house east of the village.

John Governor is convalescing from a severe case of measles.

T. A. Roberts of Youngstown will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. D. V. Eckenrode, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is not much improved.

Clyde Cole is selling a number of Ford's today.

Rev. Hoover of Alliance was in the village Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Roy Thompson and son Leroy spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Withers and daughter Mildred of Ellsworth Station spent Sunday at Wm. Withers'.

Inez Detcheon of Milton spent Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Withers.

Mrs. R. E. Flick was in Youngstown Wednesday.

April 5—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stacey of Salem were guests at the home of W. W. Burns over Sunday.